

Solution Brief

Insight Digital Innovation – Proof of Value service

Using the latest design methodologies to enable better user adoption and a clear value roadmap to deliver a seamless roll-out of your Mixed Reality solutions.

Our Solution

Our Proof of Value service offering enables you to develop a robust business case for the roll-out of a Mixed reality solution that aligns to your specific requirements. The service is delivered through a multi-day engagement over 30 days, including a Design Thinking workshop presented by an experienced Microsoft Certified Professional and certified Design Thinking Facilitator. At the end of the engagement, you'll receive a deployment plan with environment-specific technical and change management considerations.

Our partner  Microsoft

Our Proof of Value service includes:
